

The Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, UPJŠ prof. Daniel Pella, M.D., PhD. has ordered the implementation of teaching exclusively in a distance form of teaching, effective from Monday, September 28, 2020.

Due to this regulation practical lessons will be provided online by the relevant teacher with MS Teams. It is necessary to log in at appropriate time according to the time-table. The condition to get a credit is 100% participation in the practical lessons, therefore absence is not allowed.

Lectures are available on the web - Portal LF UPJŠ.

Check our departments' website regularly, we will inform you actually in case of any changes.
